Start your 4 days Dahabiya Nile River Cruise Aswan to Luxor when you meet your guide at Aswan airport, hotel or wherever you are. Your Aswan attractions include some of the top Egypt attractions such as.

Aswan High Dam

You will visit the High Dam in Aswan, Aswan High Dam is one of the best projects in the twentieth century started in 1960 and completed in 1970. As a result, Lake Nasser was created but drowned a lot of priceless temples, fortresses, and chapels such as Abu Simbel, Kalabsha Temple, Amada Temple, and Beit El Wali.

Unfinished Obelisk

Then you will go to explore the Unfinished Obelisk, it's one of the ancient Egyptians cut granite stone for building their temples and Obelisks such as Osireion in Abydos, Valley temple in Giza Plateau, and Hatshepsut Obelisk in Karnak temple. Here, you will learn how ancient Egyptian people cut the stones, smoothed them, and transported them to Luxor. Also, you will see the broken Obelisk of Queen Hatshepsut known as the unfinished Obelisk. This Obelisk is supposed to be 42 meters long and weighs 1,090 tons.

Philae temple

Enjoy a short motorboat ride to the temple port then start your visit to one of the best Greco-Roman temples in Egypt. Walk with your guide inside the temple and learn about the curse of the two Obelisks that decorated the entrance one day. Also, explore the amazing Mammisi of Philae, Hathor temple, Trajan Kiosk, and the Nilometer. Meanwhile, the temple is one of the best sites in Aswan and the temple is also the source of one of the famous Festivals in ancient Egypt called the Isis festival was celebrated every 10 days. Later on, you will go to board your Dahabiya Nile Cruise for the next 4 days. Enjoy your lunch on board and sail towards Kom Ombo city and overnight on the way.

4 Disembarkation at Esna & Luxor attractions

Enjoy your last breakfast on board before you check out at Esna then you will be escorted to Luxor to marvel at the best Luxor attractions on the East and West banks of the Nile River.

Valley of the Kings

A must-see Luxor attraction on the west bank of the Nile. The Valley of Kings was the place where Egyptian Pharaohs of the 18th, 19th, and 20th Dynasties were resting forever. Also, the Valley of the Kings includes the tomb of the famous king Tutankhamun. Meanwhile, you can spot on the walls of the tombs all the religious books such as Book of the Day, Book of the Night, Book of Imyduat, and Opening of the Mouth.

Mortuary temple of Hatshepsut

In Deir El Bahari, Senmut, the engineer of Hatshepsut, constructed a stunning temple near the temples of Thutmose III and Mentohotep II which is the Mortuary temple of Hatshepsut. The temple features original reliefs depicting ancient Egyptian agriculture, trade with the Punt nation, the Punt expedition, and music and dance from that era. In addition, there is the exquisite Chapel of Hathor and Anubis and the Divine Birth of Hatshepsut by her father god, Amun. The Deir El Bahari Cache, meantime, was discovered not far from the Hatshepsut temple.

Memnon Colossi

Massive statues for Amenhotep III decorated his Mortuary temple on the west bank of the Nile River. They are the second biggest in Egypt after those of Abu Simbel and they show the king seated with his wife and mother.
