2 The Great Pyramids and Sakkara

After an early breakfast at your hotel, your tour guide will meet you for the first full day of sightseeing. The "classic tour" will begin in Giza at the Pyramids specifically, the infamous Khufu, Khafre, and Menkaure. These proud pyramids are complemented by the limestone statue of the Sphinx overlooking the site, standing to represent greatness in civilization from ancient times in Egypt. Lunch will be served at one of our local restaurants thereafter.

You will proceed to Sakkara, where you can view the Step Pyramid of King Djoser. This pyramid is interesting from a historical point of view. Djoser wanted something special to contain his remains, so he requested his chief architect, Imhotep, to design such a structure. The result was this Step Pyramid, which impressed him so much that it was an innovation representing one of the greatest architectural feats of that time.

After that, you will be transferred to Memphis, where you have the opportunity to wander around its open-air museum with its gigantic monuments of King Ramses II.

You will then be transferred back to your hotel in Cairo for overnight stay.
