ITINERARY

1 Luxor's Majestic Treasures

Your

5-day Elite Nile Cruise

adventure will begin with embarkation before lunch in Luxor. A delicious lunch will precede getting you settled into your plush cabin, after which it's time to join an incredible journey through ancient history. Explore the magnificent Temples of Karnak and Luxor, where massive columns, colorful symbols, and large temples all combine to relate the impressive history of ancient Egypt.

Afternoon: See the West Bank, starting with the Valley of the Kings. It is here that one finds the tombs of the pharaohs, tending to illustrate how strong their rule was. Then there is the Temple of Queen Hatshepsut at Deir El Bahari—considered by many to be an architectural masterpiece in tribute to one of the most powerful queens of Egypt. Then, there will be a stop before the two gigantic statues known as the Colossi of Memnon that have stood for millennia, guarding the Theban necropolis.

Back to the cruise for dinner and to spend your first night in this fascinating city of Luxor, preparing you for so much more in the next few days.

2 Scenic Sailing to Edfu

Head out to an appetizing breakfast on board the Elite Nile Cruise, then sail towards Edfu via the Esna Lock. The downstream route is very tranquil, with the green landscapes lining both sides of the Nile and the tranquil water providing a relaxing experience along the way.

As the day goes by, you can have a good time on the boat: sunbathing on the sun deck, refreshing with a swim, or rejuvenating with spa treatments. This relaxing sailing trip sets out a real chance for you to lay back and relax as you take in the surroundings.

Enjoy a fine dinner on board, with the best cuisine offered by these cruise ship chefs. Combine a comfortable night aboard, moored in this charming town of Edfu, with waking refreshed the following morning and ready to start a day full of exploration among ancient wonders.

3 Ancient Temples and Scenic Sailing

Enjoy your sumptuous breakfast on board the Elite Nile Cruise. Disembark to visit Edfu's magnificent Horus Temple. This is one of the best-preserved temples in Egypt and is dedicated to the god with the falcon head, Horus. You definitely will be impressed by such grandiose architecture and detailed carvings.

After the Horus Temple, you again board the cruise and continue sailing towards Kom Ombo Temple. You will visit the quite different Temple of Sobek here, dedicated to two gods, that is, the crocodile god called Sobek and Horus, the god with the head of a falcon.

4 Discovering Aswan's Historic Gems

Enjoy a delicious breakfast on board the Elite Nile Cruise. This day in Aswan starts firstly with visiting the High Dam, one of the most marvelous projects of modern engineering that finally tamed the might of the Nile. After that, proceed to the ancient Granite Quarries, the site of the Unfinished Obelisk, and explore the techniques of the ancients in stone carving.

Start at the beautiful Temple of Philae, dedicated to the goddess Isis. This lovely temple complex relocated to Agilkia Island testifies to the rich cultural heritage and architectural prowess brought to Egypt, which was moved here to save it from flooding.

Take the felucca ride in the afternoon for the fine scenery that prevails at Kitchener Island and Botanical Garden, along with the dignified Agha Khan Mausoleum perched above the Nile, which looks graciously. Return to the cruise for a gourmet dinner, then go quietly in the night to Aswan and ponder over the history and nature sceneries that were watched today.

5 Farewell to the Elite Nile Cruise
