ITINERARY

1 Get Ready for an Adventure

Before we set sail on the Red Sea liveaboard, a safety briefing, introduction of the team, completion of the dive forms, the assigning of staterooms, and a ship tour will all take place within the harbor. It is advisable that all passengers familiarize and relax themselves on the vessel prior to departure for the first diving spot for a check dive.

2 Uncover the Wonders of the Red Sea

In addition to these, the gorgeous reefs in the Tiran Strait, the Dahab which is famously known, this cruise will take the adventurers to some of the popular wrecks and reefs in the northern extreme of the Red Sea.

3 Your First Dive Site

It is without a single shadow of a doubt that the liveaboard experience is highly cost-effective. The first dive site will be at Dolphin House, also known as Shaab

El Erg.

4 Check Shipwrecks

Then, further up the coast, we have Abu Nuhas wreck sites, which are home to three shipwrecks one of which includes Carnatic, Chrisoula K., Ghiannis D., and many others. Following that is the wreck of the famous Thistlegorm which is also a dive site because of its train that rests on the wreck with trucks, motorcycles, and other equipment spread all over the place, thus becoming a major feature in many live-aboard trips.

5 See the Strait of Tiran

After arriving at the Strait of Tiran, visitors can explore the stunning dive spots at Gordon Reef, Thomas, and Jackson on their Red Sea Diving Safari.

6 Final Day of Your Diving

The diving expedition will come to an end in Dahab, which is famous for its scuba diving options.

7 No-hassle return

On the last day of diving, the boat is expected to get back to the harbor in the afternoon (from 2 p.m. to 4 p.m.). One spent the last night at the hotel or on-board the yacht; meals taken while cruising; Opportunity to get off the yacht for sightseeing.
